

Analyzing Perspectives

Self Assessment

Checklist for student self-assessment for Analyzing Perspectives (Grades K-2)

Analyzing perspectives is the process describing reasons for different points of view.

A. I find an idea about which people disagree and tell how they disagree.

- ☐ Yes. I find an idea about which people disagree and tell how they disagree.
- ☐ No. I do very little to find an idea about which people disagree and to tell how they disagree.

B. I identify an opinion about the idea.

- ☐ Yes. I identify an opinion about the idea.
- ☐ No. I do very little to identify an opinion about the idea.

C. I explain the reasons behind the opinion.

- ☐ Yes. I explain the reasons behind the opinion.
- ☐ No. I do very little to explain the reasons behind the opinion.

D. I identify a different opinion. I explain the reasons behind it.

- ☐ Yes. I identify a different opinion. I explain the reasons behind it.
- ☐ No. I do very little to identify a different opinion. I do very little to explain the reasons behind it.

Adapted from McREL Institute